NOTICE OF HEALTH INFORMATION PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Introduction

At Allergy Rheumatology Immunology Associates of North Texas – ARIANT, PLLC, we are committed to treating and using protected health information about you responsibly. This Notice of Health Information Practices describes the personal information we collect, and how and when we use or disclose that information. It also describes your rights as they relate to your protected health information. This Notice is effective 07/09/2018 and applies to all protected health information as defined by federal regulations.

Understanding Your Health Record/Information

Each time you visit Allergy Rheumatology Immunology Associates of North Texas – ARIANT, PLLC, a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment, and a plan for future care or treatment. This information, often referred to as your health or medical record, serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment,
- Means of communication among the many health professionals who contribute to your care,
- Legal document describing the care you received,
- Means by which you or a third-party payer can verify that services billed were actually provided,
- A tool in educating health professionals,
- A source of data for medical research,
- A source of information for public health officials charged with improving the health of this state and the nation,
- A source of data for our planning and marketing,
- A tool with which we can assess and continually work to improve the care we render and the outcomes we achieve.

Understanding what is in your record and how your health information is used helps you to: ensure its accuracy, better understand who, what, when, where, and why others may access your health information, and make more informed decisions when authorizing disclosure to others.

Your Health Information Rights

Although your health record is the physical property of Allergy Rheumatology Immunology Associates of North Texas – ARIANT, PLLC, the information belongs to you. You have the right to:

- Obtain a paper copy of this notice of information practices upon request,
- Inspect and copy your health record as provided for in 45 CFR 164.524,
- Request to amend your health record as provided in 45 CFR 164.528,
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your health information as provided in 45 CFR 164.528,
- Request communications of your health information by alternative means or at alternative locations,
- Request a restriction on certain uses and disclosures of your information as provided by 45 CFR 164.522, and
- Revoke your authorization to use or disclose health information except to the extent that action has already been taken.

Our Responsibilities

Allergy Rheumatology Immunology Associates of North Texas – ARIANT, PLLC is required to:

- Maintain the privacy of your health information,
- Provide you with this notice as to our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to information we collect and maintain about you,
- Abide by the terms of this notice,
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to a requested restriction (by law not required to accept restrictions as requested), and

- Accommodate reasonable requests you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations.

We reserve the right to change our practices and to make the new provisions effective for all protected health information we maintain. Should our information practices change, we will post the notice in our offices.

We will not use or disclose your health information without your authorization, except as described in this notice. We will also discontinue using or disclosing your health information after we have received a written revocation of the authorization according to the procedures included in the authorization.

Walk-ins: Patients will be required to complete a short form identifying what healthcare issues they are presenting with at the time of the visits. All efforts will be made to speak to the patient in confidence.

For More Information or to Report a Problem

If have questions and would like additional information, you may contact the practice's Office Manager in writing to 2021 N. MacArthur Blvd., Suite 225, Irving, TX. 75061 or call (972) 253-4370.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you can file a complaint with the practice's Office Manager or with the Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. There will be no retaliation for filing a complaint with either the Office Manager or the Office for Civil Rights. The address for the OCR is listed below:

Office for Civil Rights

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services 200 Independence Avenue, S.W.

Examples of Disclosures for Treatment, Payment and Health Operations

We will use your health information for treatment.

For example: Information obtained by a nurse, physician, or other member of your health care team will be recorded in your record and used to determine the course of treatment that should work best for you. Your physician will document in your record his or her expectations of the members of your health care team. Members of your health care team will then record the actions they took and their observations. In that way, the physician will know how you are responding to treatment.

We will also provide your physician or a subsequent health care provider with copies of various reports that should assist him or her in treating you for continuity of care.

We will use your health information for payment.

For example: A bill may be sent to you or a third-party payer. The information on or accompanying the bill may include information that identifies you, as well as your diagnosis, procedures, and supplies used.

We will use your health information for regular health operations.

For example: Members of the medical staff, the risk or quality improvement manager, or members of the quality improvement team may use information in your health record to assess the care and outcomes in your case and others like it. This information will then be used in an effort to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the healthcare and service we provide.

We may share your information with Business Associates.

For example: There are some services provided in our organization through contacts with business associates. An example is a technical support company (or a business associate as deemed necessary) to help support our Practice Management System and/or Electronic Health Record application. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information to our business associate so that they can perform the job we've asked them to do. To protect your health information, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information.

Notification: We may use or disclose information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, personal representative, or another person responsible for your care, your location, and general condition.

Communication with family: Health professionals, using their best judgment, may disclose to a family member, other relative, close personal friend or any other person you identify, health information relevant to that person's involvement in your care or payment related to your care.

Research: If you elect to participate in a research study at the Allergy Rheumatology Immunology Associates of North Texas then we may disclose information to researchers as identified by your Clinic physician and as released by your authorization. At the time of review by the Research Team your medical record in its entirety will be made available. In the event that any request for release of your Medical Record is received all research information will also be released. We may disclose information to researchers when their research has been approved by an institutional review board (IRB) that has reviewed the research proposal and established protocols to ensure the privacy of your health information.

Funeral directors: We may disclose health information to funeral directors consistent with applicable law to carry out their duties.

Marketing: We may contact you to provide appointment reminders or information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Food and Drug Administration (FDA): We may disclose to the FDA health information relative to adverse events with respect to food, supplements, product and product defects, or post marketing surveillance information to enable product recalls, repairs, or replacement.

Workers compensation: We may disclose health information to the extent authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to workers compensation or other similar programs established by law.

Public health: As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health or legal authorities charged with preventing or controlling disease, injury, or disability.

Law enforcement: We may disclose health information for law enforcement purposes as required by law or in response to a valid subpoena.

Federal law makes provision for your health information to be released to an appropriate health oversight agency, public health authority or attorney, provided that a work force member or business associate believes in good faith that we have engaged in unlawful conduct or have otherwise violated professional or clinical standards and are potentially endangering one or more patients, workers or the public.

Financial Policy

We appreciate your trust in us and the opportunity to serve you. As part of our practice, we try to offer efficient and helpful billing services. To this end, we ask you to read the following statement of our financial billing policy. Please sign it prior to seeing the physician for your exam and/or treatment.

Patient payment responsibilities

Please bear in mind that it is your responsibility to pay as a deposit any deductible amount, co-insurance, co-pay or any other balance not covered by your insurance company prior to receiving services. Even though we assist you in receiving reimbursement from your insurance company, please understand that you, the patient, ultimately have the final responsibility of your bill. Additionally, we cannot waive copays for our patients since this is an insurance plan requirement.

Self Pay

All self-pay patients are required to pay in full, before seeing the physician for your exam and/or treatment.

Cancellation of Scheduled patient Appointments and Procedures

Our office requires prior notification of minimum of 48 Hrs for rescheduling/cancelling of patient appointments. Any follow-up rescheduled/cancelled appointment with less than 48 hours notice will be billed a fee of $40.

Payments

Bills will be issued after the insurance company pays its portion of the bill. We do require all guarantors to provide their social security numbers during the patient registration. Balances are due in full 30 days of when the bill is issued to you. We do not have the ability to carry patient balances over any extended period. We accept cash, checks, and most credit cards as forms of payment.

Our practice is committed to providing the best care for our patients. Our charges are within the usual and customary range for the medical specialties and for this area.

Thank you for understanding our Financial Policy. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

I have read, understood, and agreed to this Financial Policy.
